

What is God's good news?

Why is it that none of us is entitled to eternal life?

What does Paul say about circumcision in Romans 2:25?

How does Paul respond to those who would then say there is no value in being a Jew?

What is the Jew's foremost advantage?

When did the Jews hear the very words of God?

Why does Paul quote from Psalm 51 to answer the charge that God is unfaithful?

What does Paul want Jews to realise? See v9

How might we 'Christianize' the question raised in Romans 3:1?

What do we need to do to gain approval and acceptance by God?

If God is always faithful and just, how and why should that be a comfort to us?

What do we need to know about:

- Ourselves?
- God?
- Jesus Christ?
