Colossians 4:5-6

Sunday 5th Sept 2010

Making the most of every opportunity

Can you think of a situation where someone's words or actions have left you feeling bruised?

What do Christians want people to realize about the gospel?

What does Paul say in Colossians 4:5?

What does he say in Colossians 4:6?

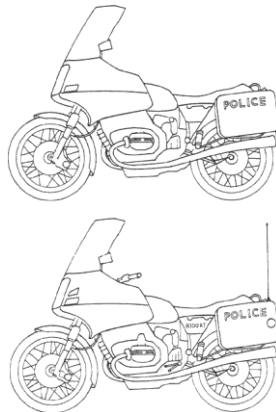

Who is Paul referring to as 'outsiders'?

What other words does the Bible use to describe the division of humanity?

How does an 'outsider' come 'inside'?

How do many people excuse their unbelief?

What should be different about a Christian?

Why do actions speak louder than words?

What clothing should Christians be wearing? See Colossians 3:12-14

Why is our behaviour as God's children important?

What are we do to with opportunities to show love to others?

How was Opportunity portrayed by the Greeks and what was its meaning?

What does it mean for our conversation to always be full of grace?

How can our conversation be seasoned with salt?

If a word cloud was made of everything you said last week, what words would stand out?

Even if we are fearful of witnessing, what must we be ready and prepared to do?
