

Introduction

- What are we going to see illustrated in this morning's passage?
- What pattern are we seeing repeatedly in Judges?
- Do we see that in this morning's passage?

Rescue

- In v4-5, the scene is set. In v6-7, Deborah delivers God's message to Barak. How does Barak respond in v8-10?
- What does v11 do in the passage?
- Sisera moves in in v12-13. How does Deborah depict God in v14?
- How does Barak respond this time in v15-16?
- What should we think of Jael's actions in v17-22?
- Whose victory is it really in v23-24?

The Lessons

- What is the first lesson we can learn from our passage?
- How do we see this with Barak?
- Where in the New Testament is Barak mentioned?
- Why is this encouraging?

- Give an example of when we might have a lack of faith which leads to a lack of obedience.
- Which New Testament verse can help to stimulate us to faith-filled obedience?
- What does the Holy Spirit not produce in us?
- What three things does he produce in us?
- What, then, does that mean to Christians?
- What do you need if you are not a Christian?
- What is the second lesson we can learn from our passage?
- How does God's providence sometimes seem to us?
- But what is he actually doing?
- What does that mean to us?
- What is the third lesson we can learn from our passage?
- Who is the main focus of the passage on?
- Which verses show that?
- So what is our passage actually all about (it's not Girl Power!)?
- What does that mean to us?
