

Joyful Worship (Psalm 100)

Introduction

- Which verse shows that our whole lives ought to be an expression of worship to the Lord?
- What does Psalm 100 do?

Psalm 100

- v1-2 give us three commandments. How are we to carry them out?
- What should our worship of the Lord be like, then?
- What are the four reasons v3 gives us to worship God joyfully?
 - (i)
 - (ii)
 - (iii)
 - (iv)
- What does v4 tell us to do?
- What are the three reasons v5 gives us to worship God joyfully?
 - (i)
 - (ii)
 - (iii)

Lessons

- What is the first lesson we can learn about worship?
- List some other verses which also command the same thing.
- Where does the individual Christian's joy come from?
- Why, then, should our corporate worship be joyful in normal circumstances?
- Does the Bible call us to have only one pattern for worship?
- How might joyful worship be expressed...
 - in singing?
 - in praying?
 - in listening to the Bible being read and preached?
- What are some ways in which we can fail to worship God joyfully?
- What else does Psalm 99 teach about how we are to worship?
- How joyful is your worship?
- What is the second lesson we can learn about worship?
- What is the first truth about God which should cause us to worship joyfully and reverently?
- What is the second truth about God which should cause us to worship joyfully and reverently?
- How can disgusting sinners be in a relationship with God?
- What do you need to do if you are not a Christian?
- What should you do before you come to church next week?