

The King Comes to Jerusalem (Mark 11:1-11)

Introduction

- What are the crowds chanting in this morning's passage?
- What will crowds be chanting in less than a week?

Mark 11:1-11

- How might you explain our Lord's knowledge in v1-6?
- What do the disciples and the crowds do in v7-8?
- Which psalm do the people quote in v9-10?
- What is that psalm all about?
- What were the Jews expecting?
- What happens in v11?

Lesson

- What has Jesus been doing throughout Mark?
- What is he doing by making so public an entrance to Jerusalem?
- Which Old Testament passage is in the background here?
- What are some of the things which that passage says about the king?

- What reaction would all this have stirred up in the Jews?
- What is the first thing we can learn about the sort of king Jesus is?
- Give some examples of gentleness in our Lord's ministry.
- What does this mean to us?
- What does Isaiah 40:11 teach?
- What is the second thing we can learn about the sort of king Jesus is?
- How does the colt show this?
- What sorts of uncontrollable situations might we face?
- What does Ephesians 3:16 offer God's people?
- What is the third thing we can learn about the sort of king Jesus is?
- In what way were the Jews setting their sights too low?
- What unconventional means did Jesus use to save his people?
- Has Jesus saved you?

Conclusion

- How should we respond to King Jesus?