

What is blame-shifting?

When do we first encounter blame-shifting in the Bible?

Why do we blame-shift?

What do the exiles mean when they repeat the proverb about sour grapes?

What do the exiles accuse God of?

What saying does God propose?

What 2 important truths do we learn from this saying?

What does 'death' mean in this saying?

What is the main point of the family case study in verses 5-19?

How might we be falsely comforting ourselves?

What is true of every one of us?

What other principle is taught in Ezekiel 18?

What is promised to the wicked man who turns away from sin?

What command does God issue in v30?

How has God shown that He takes no delight in the death of the wicked?

How can we be considered righteous in the sight of God?

How can God forgive our sins and remain just?

What does Ezekiel 18 teach us about:

- Human identity?
- Divine personality?
- Eternal destiny?

