What did God promise Abraham?

How does Abraham show he is trusting in God's promise after Sarah's death?

What is Abraham concerned about at the beginning of Genesis 24?

What principles of decision-making might we learn from this passage?

How is Genesis 24 a foreshadowing of Jesus?

According to the New Testament, in what way is Abraham an example to us?

What would be the easy option to find a wife for Isaac?

Why is Abraham so firm that Isaac is not to leave Canaan?

In what way does Abraham trust God?

What is a trusting faith?

What does Abraham's servant do as soon as he arrives at his destination?

What action does the servant take?

In what way is his plan a test of character?

What is...

- God's will of decree?
- God's will of desire?

What does God expect us to do?

How can we trust God and yet also be active...

- In evangelism?
- In discipleship?
- In church ministry?

Why is so much space given in Genesis to finding a wife for Isaac?

What is the most important thing about faith?
